

COUNTRY OF ORIGIN

Spain

APPELLATION

Rioja

VARIETALS

Tempranillo, Graciano, Garnacha

TASTING NOTES

Intense, deep garnet-red colour with little sign of evolution. With the glass at rest, mineral aromas of china ink, stone and terroir. When you swirl the glass reminders of graphite, prunes, sweet liquorice, toast. Silky smooth attack. Full, meaty mouth-feel with persistent, very elegant tannins. Sweet black-fruit flavours. Reminders of minerals and spices, pipe tobacco, cedar. Flavoursome, persistent aftertaste.

REVIEW

Intense aromas of graphite, vanilla and creamy berry fruits are a fine opening to this off vintage winner, proof that great wines can come from weak vintages. The deep palate is blazing with integrated acidity. Campfire smoke is infused into blackberry and cassis flavors, while this is long, elegant and echoes ripe berry and chocolaty oak on the finish. Drink through 2040.
